

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CHURCH PERSONNEL ADMINISTRATORS PRESENTS BOARD SERVICE AWARD TO THE ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Alexandria, Va. -- The Archdiocese of Chicago received the 2018 Board Service Award from the National Association of Church Personnel Administrators (NACPA) during the association's 47th annual convocation in Niagara Falls. The award was presented to Ms. McCurdy on April 24.

The NACPA Service Award recognizes a current member or member organization which has provided invaluable service to support the mission of the association.

The Archdiocese of Chicago was selected for this honor based on its long and distinguished service to the association. Three archdiocesan leaders have served as NACPA presidents. The archdiocese has had a significant impact on the convocation, regularly providing speakers and supporting the event as a Platinum Sponsor. NACPA also is grateful for the growing number of members who hail from the archdiocese.

From its headquarters in Alexandria, Va., NACPA promotes leadership in human resources, finance and administration that models Gospel values, promoting justice in the workplace. The association strives to strengthen working relationships among Catholic diocesan, parish and school leaders, ministers and employees and to help develop Church personnel and human resource skills.
